A Day in the Life...

ach and every day some 2,000 students make their way to Liberty Union High School. With these 2,000 students come 2,000 different personalities, sets of beliefs, hopes, fears, and aspirations. For each person a day in the life of a Liberty student is a completely different story.

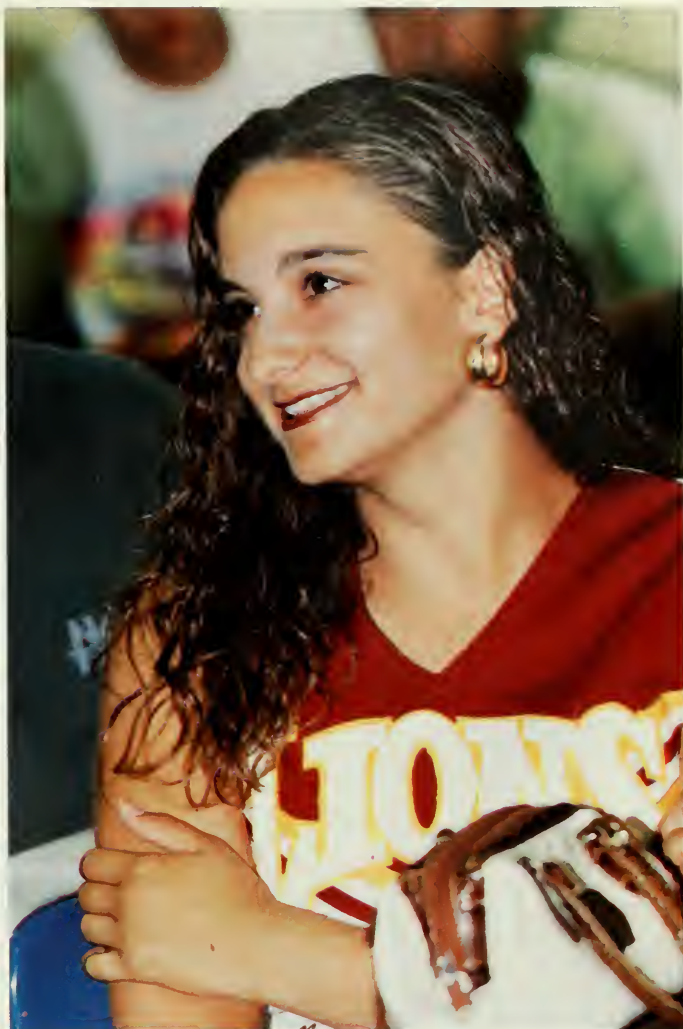

Yet, there are some common occurrences and experiences that bind us all together. At school we all have the responsibility to attend class and do the work that teachers assign us. Besides academic interests, many also participate in extra-curricular activities. Though we're different, a day in the life of each student can have common aspects.

Memories to Last a Lifetime

Some have said that the time you spend in high school is the best time of your life. Many wish that they could return to high school in order to do things over again, or a little differently than they had. The memories that one makes during their high school years might well affect how they later view life. Some will carry with them the knowledge they obtained through their classes. Others will look fondly back at the team work and competition they learned through sports. People also will remember late rehearsals for theater productions. Some will just value the friendships they made. What you will carry out with you at graduation will be memories to last a lifetime.

What Makes a Friend?

A friend is defined as a person who gives assistance or support. Yet, a true friend is much more. A friend is one who is there for you in times of trouble, listens without judging, and defends your every action. A friend is someone you are not afraid to cry in front of, and someone you can trust to keep a secret. Friends are there regardless of the situation. One may have many friends, but a true friend is forever.

Breaking the Mold

I ndividuality is a valued possession. When we come to school each day we bring that individuality with us. All of us have unique personalities, interests, fears, and styles. Reflecting how Liberty students try to be different, we chose the theme "Breaking the Mold". Even if we have some similar characteristics, none of us are clones. We all like different things. Our interests in sports, music, dress, movies, and academics are very diverse. Yet, we can use this diversity to our benefit. We can share with others what makes us different. When we "break the mold" we are helping to make Liberty a heterogeneous place to learn.

Above: Sonya Garcia checks out the scene in the quad during lunch; right: Laurie Manley weaves a basket during Liberty's trip back to the sixteenth century with the Renaissance Faire.

Homecoming Week 1995

omecoming 1995 brought with it many firsts, thus "breaking the mold". This year brought with it new dress up days, original lunchtime activities, and inventive floats. It was the first time that two classes, the Seniors and the Juniors, tied for spirit points and shared the prize. The highlight of Homecoming each year is the announcement of the Homecoming Court and the later coronation of the 1995 king and queen. The court was given the customary gold rose boxes, two of which contained the red roses belonging to king and queen. Adriann Aguilar and Enrique Acosta were delighted to find the red roses. They were congratulated by the members of the 1995 court: Erika Ashley, Kelli Bacciocco, Courtney Barajas, Nicole Bifano, Aaron Black, Crissy Continente, Tania Fluty, Zack Long, Korianne Orton, Billy Pease, Jose Quesada, Deanna Rodriguez, Gabe Salinas, Steve Sosine, Jessica Souza, Jake Stelzriede, and Willie Yurkovich. Another highlight of Homecoming was the Class of '97 winning the float competition for the third year.

Changing Faces

ou can often tell how a person is feeling by the look on their face. A person who is feeling happy is not likely to be walking around with a sneer on their face, likewise, a person who is sad is not going to be smiling and laughing. Our faces show a lot about us. They not only show our emotions at any given moment, but they also reveal something about our personalities. Our faces are the first thing others see when they meet us. Opinions are formed based on our expressions. Opportunities may arise and diminish based on our facial expressions. Thus, our faces may say much more about us than we may think.

Taking Care of Business

The classroom is where the majority of Liberty students spend their time during the day. The things that these students do in the classroom are as diverse as the teachers who teach here. Because of the technology available at this school, Liberty students are being trained with some of the educational tools of the future, as in the Tech 2000 class. In the math classes, technology is at work with the graphing calculator and idea of group learning. Advancement can also be shown in the science classes where students are able to perform complex experiments. The classroom is a place where Liberty is "breaking the mold", using the technology of the future.

Don't You Wish?.....

During a persons' lifetime, there are many times when they do something and then look around to make sure that no one else has seen them. Many of us can remember the embarrassment that we felt when we ran into a pole, or how ashamed we felt after wearing a certain outfit on a dress up day. But imagine how embarrassed we would be if that action were caught on film. This page is dedicated to all the people who have done something that they were embarrassed by and especially to those who we caught on film. We propose the question to them, "Don't you wish?..."

Above: Logan Fondren is startled when sneaking around backstage; below: Watch out! Jeff Seeno, didn't you hear that your face may stay that way?

Parting Shots

n the previous opening pages are photos of the changes we undergo as we move through the fall semester of our '95-'96 school year. For the seniors, it is their final chapter in their high school careers. It's the last opportunity for them to show their complete individuality since starting in June, society will place greater responsibility and higher expectations on them.

These parting shots (photos not put-downs) represent who we've been, who we are, and who we might be in the future as well as acting as a transition between the opening and the senior section.

In keeping with our theme "Breaking the Mold", the editors have added four candid pages to the middle of the senior section. These new pages are dedicated solely to the Class of '96 as they prepare to go onto careers in the military, enter into marriages, further their education, or join the work-force in some capacity.

Below: Bonnie Scott, Stephanie Greenlaw, and Terri Linder organize the student body cards during walk-thru. Stephanie and Terri are responsible for helping to organize walk-thru as part of their Commissioner of Curriculum assignment in Leadership.

In "Breaking the Mold", the editors place a variety of different activities on the final page of the opening section to show that Liberty students do Break the Mold in many ways.

Seniors

Above: David Jenkins shows both his class spirit and enthusiasm as he rocks out to the beat at a lunch time activity.

The Class of 1996-Seniors

Throughout your whole life, being a high school senior comes only once. And within this year comes some of the best days you will ever experience, here forever, friends and memories are made. You are faced with important decisions that will affect the direction your life will take. Your senior year is the closing of four incredible years of fun, learning, and friendships. The Class of 1996 should be proud of their accomplishments and achievements that has made our class truly unique.

When we first walked onto the campus, we were suddenly the Liberty Lions. With over 600 new freshmen we were the largest class to enter Liberty. Under the leadership of Stacy Martins, president; Enrique Acosta, vice-president; Susan Bradley, secretary; Tania Fluty, treasurer; and Miss Karla Lorenzetti and Miss Stephanie Cook, advisors; we made an immediate, positive impact on the campus. We not only participated and won several lunchtime activities; together, we raised hundreds of dollars through candy sales. During Homecoming Week, we all worked hard to construct a superior float entitled "Brand the Broncos".

Our school spirit continued into our sophomore year. We elected Ericka Ashley, president; Noelle Connors, vice-president; Tania Fluty, secretary; and Jennifer Grubb, treasurer. Along with our faithful advisors, Ms. Ilene Foster and Ms. Karla Lorenzetti, we organized candy and candy-gram sales and hosted a successful Sadie Hawkin's Dance to raise money to lower the cost of Sophomore Hop tickets. The theme for the Sophomore Hop was "Now and Then" where we crowned Jose Rodriquez and Tania Fluty as our prince and princess.

With excitement we entered our junior year. Suddenly we were upperclassmen with only one year to go until we would become the almighty SENIORS! As juniors we showed our pride and spirit by participating in lunch time activities earning second place in spirit points. The Class of '96 united as we constructed our Homecoming float entitled "Wipe out the Warriors". Together there were 450 Juniors who elected Chuck Allen; president, Enrique Acosta; vice-president, Jose Rodriguez; secretary and Gabe Salinas; treasurer. The Juniors were guided by their helpful advisor Ms. Ilene Foster. Together we hosted a successful Junior Prom at the Concord Centre. The theme was "When I Dream About You." As the year came to a close our anticipation increased as we embarked on our final year of High School.

For the class of '96 their Senior year had finally arrived. And you wouldn't believe all of the class spirit! Homecoming Week gave us the opportunity to strut our mighty stuff. For the first time we dominated Homecoming activities and gained control of the "Spirit Jug." At the rally we announced that Enrique Acosta and Adriann Aguilar would be our King and Queen. The creation of our float was also superior, our theme was "Whip the Warriors."

As graduation day approaches seniors were confronted with various opportunities for fun and enjoyment. For the first time in five years the School Board approved a Senior Grad Night trip to Disneyland, this wouldn't have been possible without the diligent efforts of students Troy Jaques and Charlene Golden. Senior Ball was held in San Francisco at the Gift Center. The theme was "Just You and Me," we danced to midnight, laughed with friends, and made unforgettable memories.

Center, less than a week before Graduation. This was a special time filled with spiritual inspiration and emotional moments. We dedicated it to Kevin Carpenter and his family for their introduction and loyalty to this annual event.

Graduation Day! For the past 13 years we have waited for the chance to throw our caps in the air and say our final farewell to our high school days. We were honored to have Eric Ferguson as our Valedictorian and Summer Rodriguez, Terri Linder, Tanya Smith and Samantha Steger as the Salutatorians. As proud Liberty alumni we make our grand entrance into the "real world."

Many of us will choose to take divergent paths. Some will attend a college as others will immediately follow their career path and begin working. While the directions we take in life remain presently unknown, there is no doubt that the Class of 1996 will make a tremendous impact that will not be forgotten.

Just Me & You Sets Theme

raveling to San Francisco's Gift Center, the Class of 1996 enjoyed the annual Senior Ball on May 25.

With dancing and dining on three levels, the seniors and their dates were able to enjoy the spacious accommodations. One whole floor was set-up for formal pictures.

Their buffet dinner consisted of a choice of chicken, roast beef, or pasta primavera, and many of the seniors felt that it was a very good buffet supper. Another highlight of the evening was the tremendous choices of desserts which were also served on the three different levels.

With the theme of "Just Me and You", the Senior Class enjoyed the good music provided by a DJ. Class advisors' Ilene Foster and Judy Malkin were a featured event of the evening.

Class of 1996 Breaks Tradition at Graduation

Despite blazing weather and gale-force winds, the Class of 1996 graduated "their way". This year broken tradition was marked decorated mortarboards, casual dress, and the reemergence of "Betty" the blow-up doll. The ceremony started off with Mr. Gene Clare's introductory remarks where once again he encouraged the graduates to "call him Gene". The evening started rolling with the introduction of the class speaker, Steve Wenograd. Wenograd inspired the class with the idea that "tomorrow is today". Following Wenograd, the class valedictorian, Eric Ferguson, took center stage. In a speech that one can only describe as unique, Ferguson talked to the class via the use of everyday language and quotes from people the seniors were most familiar with. Following Ferguson, the Class of 1996 further broke the mold with the introduction of four salutariorians. Terri Linder, Summer Rodriguez, Tanya Smith, and Samantha Steger were chosen to speak to the class regarding the future. Though the ideas and presentations were different, the idea that success was within their reach. Ana Guiterrez, senior class president, followed with the presentation of the class gift. Also notable was the class song, "Friends" presented by Jenny Lind Vocal winner Korianne Orton, and ASB President Crissy Continente leading the class in throwing off the past, as symbolized by their mortarboard. We wish the Class of 1996 the best of everything in the future. "Make a great future."

The Class of 1997 - Juniors

Tried and True, their spirit shines through as the Class of 1997 once again claws their way to a victory for the third straight year in the annual Homecoming Parade competition. Their float theme "Lion's Spear-It" displayed their creativity with the hero mascot in a football jersey spearing at the rival warrior with cheerleaders urging him on to victory.

This year the class elected Nick Woodworth, president; Jill Bacciocco, vice-president; Charlie Enos, treasurer; and Mehrissa Yalung, secretary. Along with their superb advisors, Mrs. Debbie Strance and Mrs. Joy Crum, the juniors were well represented and provided with a most eventful year.

One of the featured events of the year was the traditional skit during the Homecoming Rally; it had a little something for everyone to enjoy. It was colorful, entertaining and most memorable for the audience.

Disco Daze allowed the juniors and other classes to sport their polyester suits and platform shoes as students demonstrated their disco fever. To make the evening even more memorable, John Travolta was available for pictures.

This year's T-shirt represented the class as well proclaiming "The Leaders of the Pack"; a statement both bold and true. No doubt, a well-suited T-shirt.

The final event of the year was the traditional Junior Prom held May 3 at the Savoy Country Club in Walnut Creek. The prom's theme was "Hold on to the Night" and suited that night and we will definately hold on to the memory of it always.

Juniors worked especially hard this year to raise money for the dance by sponsoring dances (like Disco Daze), having pizza nights, and selling candy.

With graduation on June 7, 1996, the juniors officially became the Senior Class and could look forward to their final year at Liberty.

The Class of 1998 - Sophomores

Together under strong leadership and tremendous parental support, the Class of 1998 is the last class to go through Liberty that is comprised of students from the whole district without reservation.

Working to raise money in their second year at high school, the sophomores sponsored an after-game dance, a Sadie Hawkins dance, candy sales, and pizza nights at the local pizza parlors. This large class also sponsored their Sophomore Hop with the theme of "Water from the Moon", which came from a song. They turned the cafeteria area into a beautiful night club with the moon and stars decorating the walls, tables, and ceiling. With great parental support, the evening was fun for all.

The class was led by Amy Dixon, president; Gretta Askew, secretary, Deanna Andronico, treasurer; and Alyson Bifano, vice-president. English teachers, Mrs. Labelle Foster and Mrs. Norma Equinoa were the class advisers.

With two years finished, the Class of '98 was halfway done with their high school career.

'Water from the Moon' Sets Hop Theme

Crowning two princess and a prince highlighted the activities at the annual Sophomore Hop held on April 27 in the school cafeteria. Alyson Bifano and Tiffany Long shared the honor of princess while Terry Farwell was tabbed as the prince. Other members of the court were Pico Martinez, Gretta Askew, Matt Gomes, Deana Andronico, Janie Frost, Brian Hampton, and Terry Ball.

Using the theme of "Water from the Moon", the Sophomore Class turned the cafeteria into a moon and star-studded dance hall. Sophomores and their parents spent Saturday morning decorating the cafeteria area using a huge display spelling out Sophomore Hop 1996 over a set of the double doors. This display greeted the sophomores and their dates as they entered the area to enjoy the music provided by a DJ. Dress for the Hop ranged from dress jeans to tuxs for the boys and casual dresses to formals for the girls.

The Class of 1999 - Freshman

The Class of 1999 started their life at Liberty with an all new beginning as they brought their individualism from different schools . With this came new faces , new friends and a higher learning. With nearly 734 students the class of 1999 out numbers all the other classes. The Class of 1999 elected Stephanie Ghilarducci, president; Genny Ginilo, vice-president; Sonny D 'Amico, treasurer; and Brooke DeRenzi, secretary.

With the help of their class advisors, Mrs. Sue Colvard and Mrs. Martha Magner, the Class of 1999 built their first float and learned how they needed to work together as a class. The float's theme was "Devour The Warriors". The float had a Liberty Lion on it with the Warriors feet hanging out of the Lion's mouth.

With the building of Freedom High school in Oakley , the Class of 1999 would only be together as Liberty Lions for a single year. In August, some 250+ of the Class of 1999 would become Freedom Falcons and spend their first semester still on the Liberty campus. With the completion of the first set of buildings in December, the entire student body of Freedom would move to their new site on O'Hara and Neroly Roads in Oakley.

The newest group at Liberty, the Class of '99, is also the largest single group at Liberty and is involved in a variety of activities as these three pages (98-100) of pictures so aptly demonstrate.

Freshmen

Freshmen

Working and playing in groups became a more important part of each individual freshmen's life as they had to learn how to cooperate in the classroom, on the playing fields, and at after-school activities. Some of the frosh would be headed for Freedom High School as sophomores as the new campus was under construction for most of '96 and was scheduled to open for classes in January of '97.

Smith Leads Band in Year of Success

During the 1995-1996 school year, the Liberty band made amazing strides. The school year started with the Liberty marching band performing a field show to Andrew Lloyd Webber's "Jesus Christ Superstar". Under the direction of Drum Major, Sean Smaker, the Marching Pride took two first place trophies in the marching category of field show competitions. At the final field competition, the band took first place in their class. Continuing in their success, the Liberty Symphonic Band excelled this year. The jazz band was also successful this year. Due to high participation numbers, the band was split into two performing groups. The talents of these musicians earned them a unanimous superior rating at CMEA.

Choirs Earn Unanimous Superior

This years Liberty Singers were a big success at the CMEA Choir Festival. Men's Chorus, Women's Chorus, and Women's Ensemble all received an overall rating of Excellent. A Cappella Choir and Chamber Singers each received a Unanimous Superior for the second year in a row. Women's Ensemble, A Cappella Choir, and Chamber Singers all earned a Superior in sight-reading.

Two days before the festival, Women's Ensemble, A Cappella Choir, and Chamber Singers went to Cal-State Stanislaus for a trial run. There they received advice from judges and teachers on how to polish their performances.

Clubs Mirror Student Activities

Mirroring their activities in the classroom, many students chose to join some clubs that had service as their purpose. From Mock Trial, a group that competed with other schools in court room situations to Youth Educators, students who went to local elementary schools to educate the youngsters in drugs and alcohol, the students pictured on these two pages had to meet qualifications to become members of their respective groups.

The Peer Counselors were very active on our campus as they helped students resolve conflicts while the Liberty for Earth group collected aluminum cans in order to buy and plant a new tree in the spring.

Leadership Exchange Program with Russia

During the week of October 28 through November 8, our campus hosted four Russian students and their advisor from a school in Moscow. This was the first part of an exchange program we had been selected to participate in as a medalist school. With the help of other leadership students, Heidi Hartman went through the long application process to become one of the five schools chosen from the 100 that had applied.

In March, our four students and advisor, Crissy Continente, Krisi Brown, Theresa Schnittker, Heidi Hartman and Mr. Abe Doctolero; jetted off to Russia as the other half of the exchange program. The five spent the majority of their visit in Moscow with a side trip to St. Petersburg.

The trip was split into four sections: a camp called Bear Lake to prepare the travelers with language skills and goals; host homes where each participant spent seven days getting a taste of the life, food, schooling, and transportation of Russia; a meeting of the AYL, Association of Young Leaders; and a side trip to St. Petersburg for a two day visit so that the Americans could sight-see and enjoy the Winter Palace. While in Moscow, each of the four girls and the adviser went to separate host homes and were on their own for a week to give them a taste of Russia.

Statewide Success for FFA

Guiding the FFA to one its most successful years ever was in the capable hands of Michelle Kelly, president; and Mr. Don Lopez, advisor. From competition locally to capturing first place in the prepared speech division in Eureka to the leadership conference in Fresno, FFA officers and their advisor traveled the state to help their chapter be the best. Michelle was not only the president but lead in other ways as she was name a State Farmer and also captured a first place in prepared speech competition.

From the first week of school where the FFA participated in the Contra Costa County Fair to the conclusion of their year's activities with their banquet, the group was busy.

Jenks, Hamra Astound in "Our Town"

This year's Fall Production was the Thornton Wilder classic, "Our Town", a story about life and the conditions of life. The past few years the Fall Production has traditionally been a comedy, but this year director, Helen Dixon, decided on a dramatic piece; and dramatic it was. Tara Jenks successfully portrayed the life of Emily Webb, a young girl growing up in the rural town of Grovers Corners. It follows her life as she falls in love with George Gibbs, played by Zack Hamra. Yet tragedy befalls us all and Emily soon dies. Preceding her death Emily realizes how wasted time consumed her life. In "Our Town", we are shown how everyday babies are born and people die in Grovers Corners, but the cycle of life goes on, and love conquers all.

Above: Sheryl Wallace and Tamara Dorman portray the mothers of "Our Town's" lovebirds; right: Tara Jenks, playing the lead role of Emily, reflects on her situation.

More Than A Chuckle

Rolling laughter filled the Performing Arts Center this April as the Playmakers presented their interpretation of the Broadway and movie hit "Funny Girl". Heading the cast was Korianne Orton in the role of Fanny Brice while Zack Hamra played her husband Nick. Delighting the audience in supporting roles were Enrique Acosta who was dressed in a wild, plaid suit; Sheryl Wallace as Mrs. Rosie Brice; Tara Jenks playing Mrs. Strakosh and Nephi Speer as Eddie Ryan. The play follows the rise and success of Fanny as she becomes a popular singer and entertainer while at the same time her husband sinks deeper into his gambling addiction until he ends up in jail for 18 months. After his release from jail, the couple go their separate ways.

Each spring the Playmakers chose a vehicle that will allow for a large cast that has included staff members in past years.

How We Spent Our Saturdays

Much like a lonely freshman on the first day of school, we came into this situation unaware of what it would truly hold for us. Both of us had had considerable experience working on the annual staff, but the true nature of such a position seemed to catch us a little off-guard. Yet, with the help of our advisor, Mr. Batze, we were able to conquer that uneasiness and settle into a groove that would soon become the 1996 "Breaking the Mold" yearbook. We wanted to be nothing like our predecessors, making our own mark on the many yearbooks that will come in and out of each student's lives. We were able to do so by first offering the Senior Class a chance to immortalize their list of achievements by leaving a personal message to those they left behind. Our second innovation was to transform the Senior and Class sections by placing candid photographs in the middle of everyone's school pictures, enabling more people to have their picture in the yearbook. This allowed us to present the diversity of our campus and the people on it. It was an enlightening and stressful experience, but when we look back at our final product, we can truly feel a sense of accomplishment. We hope you will also.

Have fun next year!

Jenks Amazes Audience, Named Mr. GQ

An occasion of sorrow was turned into one of joy at this year's Mr. GQ contest. Dedicated to the memory of Kevin Carpenter, and introducing a memorial scholarship in his honor, the contest brought the entire student body together. The Mr. GQ contest consisted of the formal, swimsuit, and talent competitions. Some highlights included Zack Long's unique take on a tuxedo, "Betty", Steve Sosine's escort, and the unforgettable version of Dirty Dancing performed by Steve Mesquite and Nick Steger. In the end, all of the contestants successfully astounded the audience, but only some could win. Steve Mesquite was awarded the Kevin Carpenter good sport award, Steve Sosine was second runner-up, future policeman Aaron Black was awarded first runner-up. Mr. GQ 1996 was given to Joel Jenks, who impressed with his disco moves, talented acting ability, and crazy carrot shirt.

Continente Leads ASB as President

Highlighting the year for the student leaders and leadership class had to be the hosting of four Russian students and their advisor the first semester while our ASB officers and adviser traveled to Moscow and St. Petersburg in March. Both of these visits were part of an exchange program to promote understanding between the two countries and help the Russian schools build leadership programs. Student body president, Crissy Continente, and adviser, Mr. Abe Doctolero; were kept busy with other projects as the leadership group was also in charge of the annual Homecoming Spirit Week, Parade, Rally, and game activities.

In addition to these activities, the leadership class sponsored a Christmas Dance, hosted the annual Blood Drive, and participated in the "Adopt-a-Family" program before the Christmas break. Continuing a tradition started a few years ago, Mr. GQ was held in the Spring and played before a packed house.

Spikers Make NCS Playoffs

A very high spirited Varsity Girls' Volleyball team played with enthusiasm and determination consistently throughout the season. The girls' finished third in the BVAL. The Lady Lions and Coach Ghilarducci were very proud that their team received an at large berth to go to North Coast where they were seeded third. Danya Lilley and Michelle Kelley were rewarded with honorable mentions. One of the highlights of the year occurred when the girls' defeated Antioch High School in the first game of the season. This accomplishment foreshadowed the successful season that was to follow. The girls' are greatly anticipating next season when the majority of the teams' members will be experienced seniors. They hope to even place higher in the BVAL, and will strive for a victory in the North Coast Championship Series.

Varsity Football Undefeated in Non-League

Liberty's Varsity football team pulled together despite the great odds they faced in their third year of BVAL play. The Lions started the year off with a bang, going undefeated in non-league and stomping Ygnacio Valley at Homecoming. Captains Nate Smith, Willie Yurkovich, Emigdio Lopez, and Charley Enos played a vital part in the Lions' success. Smith, the starting quarterback, converted for 11 passing touchdowns, changing the Lions' from a strictly rushing team to one with greater balance. Andy Cotter, voted Most Valuable Back for the Lions, had 900 rushing yards, with 11 touchdowns for the year. Enos, who led the league in touchdowns before being injured, ended the year with 16 touchdowns, 9 of which were receiving. He was voted team MVP along with co-captain Willie Yurkovich, also the Lions' only First Team All-League selection. Others honored during the year included Second Team All-League selection Guillermo Melgoza and All League Honorable Mention Gabe Salinas and Emigdio Lopez.

Henthorn Paces Cross-Country

A mixture of experienced members from previous years, along with determined first year runners made for a very successful cross country season. The Lions went from dead last in league in 1994 to a strong second place in the BVAL.

This was despite having a very small girls' team. The hard work of the team, along with their coaches, produced a bountiful harvest for the Lions. They had three runners take First Team BVAL honors; including Hugo Ordaz, Alex Morales, and Linsay Henthorn. Mark Johnson earned Second Team all league honors. Next year should prove to be another strong year for Liberty's cross country team, if this year is any indication.

McLemore, Morrone Ace into Play-offs

The Liberty tennis team played exceptionally well this year. They tied for second place in the BVAL, enabling the entire team to move on to the playoffs. Their captain, Justina Morrone, helped them to achieve their goals with her persistent motivation. Tia McLemore, a first year tennis player who made her way to North Coast, was named MVP. Amber Carlson received the Coaches Award. The sportsmanship award was given to Jessica Romero. With such a great year, the girls are ready to come back and win in the future. Assisting the team was first year teacher, Mr. Mike Ybarra.

Lady Lions Reign Over the Court

Do to the loss of a few key players last year to graduation, coupled with a new coach, Sue Luckinbill and coaching style, 1996 was a year of rebuilding and retooling for the Varsity girls' basketball team. Yet, the transition was made smoother as a result of the efforts of senior captains Jennifer All and Elise Sperber. These two players guided the team and played superbly at invitational tournaments. Other players honored at various tournaments during the year include Genelle Kunst and Niccki Fletcher. At the end of it all, Jennifer All was named team MVP and received BVAL Honorable Mention, Genelle Kunst was named most improved and garnered BVAL Honorable Mention. The Best Attitude Award was given to Niccki Fletcher while Debbie Cordeiro was honored for her Hustle and Guts.

Rebuilding Year for Varsity Boys

arsity boys' basketball had a year to be proud of. In their second year in the BVAL, the team was able to win seven games, a huge improvement over last year. One of these victories came in a home game over their closest rival, Antioch in overtime.

Liberty was also able to make their games with powerhouses DeLaSalle and Monte Vista narrow victories. The boys were rewarded for their efforts as Drew Torres, although injured for five games, was given First Team All-BVAL honors, with Chuck Allen garnering Honorable Mention.

Varsity Enjoys Best BVAL Season Ever

Despite all the practices and games that had to be cancelled because of weather problems and although Coach Tony Martins was out a few games because of knee surgery, the team maintained morale and good sportsmanship. The 95-96 Girls Soccer team was the best that Liberty has ever seen. Rebeckah Faulkner and Teresa Fox were named team MVP and honored with First Team All-BVAL. Erin Ongman and Kristin Hylton were most improved. Also receiving awards from the league were Tara Rodriguez and Debbie Stultz, second team; and Jana Berg and Stacie Martins, Honorable Mention. This year marked the institution of the Tonya Smith award in remembrance of the woman who, before moving out of state, established the first soccer league in this area. The award was given to Fox.

Varsity Boys Take a Step Up at BVAL

A year of firsts continued with the boys' Varsity soccer team. They improved their record over previous years and were rewarded for their efforts. Despite the problems that winter sports teams face, such as playing in the rain, or having games cancelled because of various difficulties, they had over a .500 record, a worthwhile goal for most Liberty sports teams. Key wins for the Lions came over rival Antioch and North Coast bound Pittsburg. They were able to play competitively against the powerhouses of DeLaSalle and Monte Vista. Rewarded by the BVAL were Mike Galvan, George Plata, Kris Bulleri, Hugo Oregel, and Danny Johnston. The team names Hugo Oregel MVP, George Plata most inspirational, and Clinton Erlman most improved.

Lions Dominate at North Coast Meet

B VAL's league tournament saw 12 Lions winning berths to go on to more competition. Following this accomplishment, the varsity wrestling team had only one thing on their minds as they finished the season: North Coast; an amazing seven Lion wrestlers placed there. They were Jason Barnes, Juan Pettino, Martin Valles, Josh Storrer, Eric Heitmyer, Billy Pease, and Willie Yurkovich. These wrestlers earned a chance to compete at the State Meet. Sharing the honor of MVP were Martin Valles, Billy Pease, and Eric Heitmyer, while Kyle Reid received the Coach's award. The team hopes to continue their winning ways.

Acing the Competition

Losing nine starting players to graduation may have stopped other teams, but what was going to be a rebuilding year for the boys' tennis team turned out to be a successful year. With a new team made up primarily of young players, the Lions tennis team competed in an experienced league effectively. Although their record was not the best in the league, Coach Finger said that he didn't view success as the actual record, but the way the team had improved over the course of the season. # Varsity Beats Undeclared Pinole, 5-1

Capturing third place in the BVAL behind Pinole and Carondelet, the Varsity Softball Team marked the 5-1 victory over the then undefeated league champs, Pinole, as the highlight of their season. With a 14-8 overall mark and a 7-5 league record, the Lady Lions also did well the the Queen of the Mountain Tournament.

The girls were paced by the outstanding efforts of Teresa Fox, short stop; and Courtney Barajas, pitcher; both of whom were four-year Varsity players. Courtney enjoyed a no-hitter this season as well as being the mainstay of the pitching staff. She slugged a triple and scored against Pinole as well as throwing a great game. Theresa anchored the infield with her brilliant play at short as well as leading the Varsity players at the plate with her bat.

The Lady Lions are coached by Rich Barrios.

laying tough in the Modesto tournament, the Varsity Lions came away with the championship trophy. They continued their fine play in practice games and started league with a 9-3 record.

Under the direction of new head coach, Alan Beavers; and new assistant coach, Chris Jacot, the Varsity came away with a 3-9 league record losing some close games in the final or extra innings. Even though the team lost their final game of the season to DeLaSalle, they played the BVAL champions tough and dropped the decision 3-1.

With a year's experience under their belts, both Coaches Beavers and Jacot are looking to the future.

Year of Success for Young Dance Team

A new team made its' way onto scene this year. After two years of negotiations, Liberty now has a dance team. The dance team is a mixture of both dance and baton twirling. The Liberty Dance team made their first public appearance at the Homecoming Rally. Despite the nervous anticipation they felt, their performance was truly impressive. They unveiled their new uniforms while dancing through the streets of Brentwood. The crowd cheered them along, boosting their confidence level. This uplifted confidence helped them to perform at the northern California competition at Great America.

Track Team Dumps Antioch in Dual Meet

With a new coach and a weather-enforced new format, the Girls and Boys track enjoyed a successful season. In one dual meet against both Antioch and Pinole, both teams were successful and swept most of the events.

Led by new head coach, John Ambrose, the teams were plagued by a wet spring that forced cancellations and then consolidations of track meets in order to complete their schedule.

Individual students who did well included Cody Metzger in the pole vault as well as Ed Roza, 100 LH and triple jump; Alex Morales 800; Brice Campbell, Dan Fonara, James Jack, and Alex Morales, 1600 relay; Matt Grutman, discus; Gavin Wirth, pole vault; Stephanie Jzyk, 100 LH; Megan Smaker; shot put and discus; and Danielle Quintero, shot put and discus. # Varsity Golfers Capture Third in League

For the first time ever, Liberty golfers were split into jv and Varsity teams. The Sal Aiello Tournament in Discovery Bay was stopped after heavy rain and lighting made the course unplayable and unsafe for the day. The Varsity had no problem taking third place behind Monte Vista and Antioch in league. The teams also traveled to play again at an invitational in Nevada. Thanks to the Discovery Bay and Brentwood Country Clubs, our team had two places to practice and with the motivation and support of John Radford, jv coach, and Alex Aiello, Varsity coach, the teams were successful.

Water Lions Sprint to Success

This year at the Antioch Relays the girls came in first and overall the teams came in third place. The Water Lions have done well as a whole this year even though they are short on boys. The boys team consists of six guys, while the JV and Varsity girls teams combined have around 40 swimmers. This year's team captains were Holly-Lynn Dean, Bonnie Scott, Stephanie Greenlaw, Jake Stelzriede, and Jaime Milburn. At the Bay Valley Athletic League championships Jeremy Wendler qualified for the North Coast Section meet in both the breaststroke and 200 IM. The girls' 400 freestyle team hung on to defeat Berkeley and earn a trip also. Kari Poate earned a second place finish in the 100 butterfly and consideration for North Coast and a fourth in the 100 free. The boys' 400 free relay team of Jake Stelzriede, Jeremy, Sean Smaker, and Jeff Wilson took third and a berth at North Coast. In JV competition, Michelle Langston took two third-places in the 500 free and the 100 breast. The boys finished ahead of Berkeley and Pittsburg, the girls beat Pinole Valley and Pittsburg.

Varsity Meets Their Goals

osing six starting players to graduation may have stopped many other teams, but the Lion Boys Varsity volleyball team had a goal. At the beginning of the season, Coach Kevin Allen set out to obtain a .500 average. The team met that surpassed that goal. Under the leadership of Howie Beattie, captain, the Lions were able to place third in league. Perhaps their greatest accomplishment came in the third game of the year where they beat powerhouse De La Salle. Other key victories came over Pittsburg in straight sets and a rebuilding Berkeley. Performances of distinction include setter Aaron Somerhalder, Stewart Heredia, and Howie Beattie. They showed their ability to work together as they won the consolation championships in the Santa Rosa tournament. High expectations are imminent as they await the disbursal of the BVAL honors, along with the spring awards banquet.

Varsity Spirit Leads School

Four years of hard work came to a culmination for the majority of the Varsity cheerleading squad. Those who had been together since they were freshman, along with those who moved up from JV learned to work as a team. They were led by captain Tania Fluty, who went to the All-Star Hall of Fame Bowl in Florida. Success followed the squad, as they were awarded fourth place at the competition at Great America. The girls were rewarded for their hard work at the end of the year at their recognition evening. Tania Fluty was named Best All-Around Cheerleader; Kristen Zocchi, Most Dedicated; Cheryll Balaoing, Most Spirited; and Melissa Dutra, Most Improved.

Staff

With the departure of Mr. Greg Wright, assistant principal, to a middle school in Napa, Mr. Abe Doctolero was named to replace him and Mr. Jerry Lilley was temporarily moved into the dean position while the district searched for a permanent dean. Mr. Mike Hughes was hired in early November to become the new dean and came on board right after the Thanksgiving break. Mr. Lilley returned to the P.E. department. Later in the school year Mr. Gene Clare, principal, had to go on extended sick leave necessitating a temporary reassignment of Mr. Doctolero as acting principal while Mr. Lilley returned to administrative chores to help out with the behavioral referrals and other problems. During Mr. Doctolero's visit to Russia with four girls from student leadership, Mrs. Martha Martin, assistant principal, was tabbed as acting principal for a school week. Mr. Clare returned to duty after the spring break on April 9. Several of our multi-talented staff members performed in our first annual Class Act, a talent show featuring district employees. We had several singing acts, a hard rock band, men in dresses, skits, etc. It was an evening full of fun and laughs. Joining the Liberty staff as first year employees were non-teaching staff members Tony Catrino, director of maintenance and operations; Darryl Reeves, campus supervisor; and Michelle Sloan, instructional aide; Joy Crum changed job classifications from counseling secretary to teachers aide; new teachers are Pete Alvarez, special ed.; Lloyd Cornwell, beginning art; Richard Hoerr, video productions; Chris Jacot, counselor and assistant baseball coach; Kenneth Linhares, consumer math and Math A; Craig Marquardt, integrated physics and applied biology; Alfred Nunes, assistant Varsity football coach, applied biology, and anatomy/physiology; Andrew Parsons, world history, U.S. history, and FNL advisor; Joseph Reymann, senior physics and chemistry in the community; Brett Robinson, Algebra 1A and Geometry 102; John Shobe, Reach counselor; Susan Warren, beginning art, crafts, and beginning dance; Michael Ybarra (graduate of Liberty), Spanish 1 and 2; Mary Halter became a part-time counselor. Starting operations in August, the new Shared Governance Council began to take on the responsibility of the restructuring efforts at the school. Led by chairperson, Ilene Foster, the council met bi-monthly to discuss issues ranging from block scheduling to student programs.

Also joining the staff as principal for Freedom High School was the new principal, Judy Reagan who worked with Liberty staff members as part of the leadership team working on plans for Freedom.

Mrs. Sue Stuart was honored for her many years of outstanding teaching and was chosen as the Teacher of the Year. Mr. Dick Hackett announced his retirement from teaching and would leave the district in June and joined long-time employees Mr. Sal Navarro and Mrs. Florence Ditmars who had retired earlier in the school year.

Talent Shines at 1996 Showcase

Students flocked into the PAC in droves to watch the talents of their classmates. This year, as in the past, performing arts students were invited to take off their second through fourth periods to enjoy the melodic voices, rhythmic dancing, and the comedic acting of their peers. Mistresses of ceremony Laurie Manley and Korianne Orton, along with Master of Ceremony Sean Smaker kept the audience laughing with their "unique" humor. Performances of distinction include Tara Jenks' adaptation of Tori Amos's "Leather", the band consisting of Darren Finger, Jerrad Moore, Curtis Porterfield, Steve Grilli, and Casey Hall, and the many takeoffs on Monty Python skits. This talent was well appreciated and admired.

Diversity in Action

May 1, 1996 saw the Liberty Performing Arts Center transform itself into a showcase of international talent. For the third year in a row, Power of Unity, under the direction of counselor Rose Borunda, sponsored this day long celebration of cultural diversity and pride. The purpose of international day was to bring people together and enlighten them about backgrounds and cultures that they may not be aware of. Do to such a energetic response in the preceeding years, this year those who wanted to attend the event were encouraged to bring a can of food as donation to attend the performances. Performances of distinction include traditional Portuguese and Mexican dances.

HIGHLIGHTS

To our loving daughter Cheryl,

We are very proud of your accomplishments. You did it with hard work, dignity, and pride. In this land of opportunities, do your best to achieve your goals. We know that someday your hopes and dreams will come true. Keep the ball rolling. Congratulations! We love you always.

Love, Mom & Dad

To Lance,

It has been wonderful watching you grow into a fine young man. You have always been focused in sticking to your goals. We are all so proud of you. From the bottom of our hearts, we give you our love and support in all your future endeavors.

Your Family.

Kristo,

It was a long road-but you made it! We sure had a lot of fun getting here, didn't we? We're so proud of you and we love you.

Thanks for the memories.

Love,

Mom & Dad

We are so proud of you Noelle. You have been a continuous blessing from God. We love you "past the moon and stars".

Congrats Class of 1996

To all of our lil' cheerleading buddies, thanks for the memories!

Love,
Kristin, Tania,
Cheryll, & Melissa

Amanda,
Light of My Life!

Never let anyone take your dreams or tell you you can't! We love you more than you'll ever know. You will always have your family behind you.

Love,
Mom & Dad

Justin,

We've enjoyed watching you grow from a little boy to a man with your goals and determination-life ahead of you will be great. We're proud of you - and we love you.

Mom and Dad

Tania,
We are proud of you for all you have accomplished.

Love,
Mom, Dad, & Phil

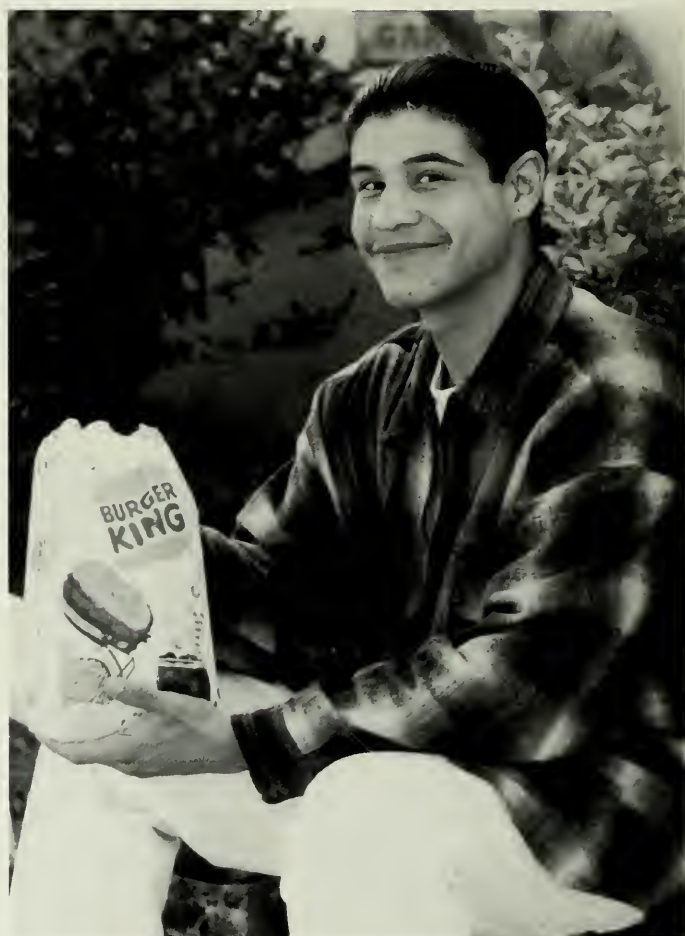

Summer,

You always were our star, continue to shine.

Love,
Mom & Dad
